TRANSFER OF JURISDICTION

On December 16, 2004, Victor Barrow was sentenced in the Western District of Texas to twenty-seven (27) months and three (3) years supervised release, having been convicted of Aiding and Abetting Importation of Marijuana. The special conditions include drug/mental health treatment, travel restrictions and financial disclosure. A $100.00 assessment fee was imposed.

The Western District of Texas has requested that our office accept transfer of jurisdiction so that violation of supervised release action may be initiated.

Attached are two signed copies of Probation Form 22, ordering the transfer of jurisdiction of the above-named offender to the Southern District of New York. We are requesting that the Probation Form 22(s) be endorsed and returned to our office.

Very truly yours,

Chris J. Stanton
Chief U.S. Probation Officer

Katherine M. Samler
